

Gill University had agreed to provide accommodations of the staff consisting of between 40 and 50 persons under Director John G. Winant, former Governor of New Hampshire. The Geneva office became isolated by